[REDACTED] — As explained to me by OFAC counsel, since this is a specific license, OFAC itself can't release it publicly, but the Court can and should docket them, as they clarify questions about the attachment process. Essentially, the license is intended to allow the Court to have full control over who is/isn't added as an Additional Judgment Creditor. Such Additional Judgment Creditors will be authorized to participate in the sale process under OFAC's non enforcement policy, up to the point of sale. At that point, an additional license will be required under OFAC's "favorable" licensing process.

If you or Judge Stark has any other questions with respect to these OFAC licenses or process, I am happy to arrange a meeting with [REDACTED], at Jenner & Block, at your convenience. Best, Bob Pincus

Case No. VENEZUELA-EO13884-2023-1057131-1

Office of the Clerk
United States District Court, District of Delaware

Wilmington, DE 19801-3570
Attn: John A. Cerino

RE: Authorization from the Office of Foreign Assets Control to Issue and Serve Writs of Attachment to Judgment Creditors for shares of PDV Holding, Inc.

Dear Mr. Cerino:

The Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) has issued a license to the Clerk of the Court for the District of Delaware, related to the Order issued by the Court on March 23, 2023, authorizing the issuance and service of writs of attachment feri facias granted by the Court to judgment creditors against shares of PDV Holding, Inc., owned by Petróleos de Venezuela, S.A. ("PdVSA").

Executive Order (E.O.) 13850 of November 1, 2018, "Blocking Property of Additional Persons Contributing to the Situation in Venezuela," as amended by E.O. 13857 ("E.O. 13850"), generally prohibits transactions and dealings in property and interests in property of individuals and entities designated pursuant to E.O. 13850. On January 28, 2019, OFAC designated PdVSA pursuant to E.O. 13850. Furthermore, on August 5, 2019, the President signed Executive Order 13884 blocking all property and interests in property of the Government of Venezuela, including entities owned or controlled by the foregoing, such as PdVSA. As a result, U.S. persons are generally prohibited from engaging in any transactions with PdVSA or dealing in any property in which PdVSA has an interest, unless separately authorized by OFAC. These prohibitions also apply to any entities that are 50 percent or more owned by PdVSA, such as PDV Holding, Inc.

Please find enclosed LICENSE No. VENEZUELA-EO13884-2023-1057131-1, authorizing the issuance and service of a writ of attachment feri facias for any party named an "Additional Judgment Creditor" by the Court pursuant to the Sale Procedures Order related to Crystallex Int'l Corp., Case No. 1:17-mc-00151-LPS (D. Del.). In light of notice considerations, the License includes a condition that a copy of the License must be shared with any "Additional Judgment Creditor" named by the Court pursuant to the Sale Procedures Order. As noted within the License, additional authorization is required in order to execute any sale or transfer of blocked property.

Should you have any questions about this license, you may call our office at 202-622-2480.

Sincerely,

Nikole A.
