

Kuala Lumpur, 7 August 2024 – PETRONAS subsidiary, PETRONAS Carigali Nile Limited (PCNL) today announced the withdrawal of its operations in the Republic of South Sudan (RSS).

The decision was made following a two-year period of divestment initiatives in alignment with PETRONAS’ long-term investment strategy amid the changing industry environment and accelerated energy transition.

PCNL will continue to work with all relevant stakeholders to ensure an amicable transition while being mindful of the rights of its employees, in accordance with applicable laws, petroleum agreements as well as PETRONAS’ policy and procedures.
